

SPORT

Find out the sports and games played by all the members of your class, and why they play them.

A good sporting competition does more for international peace in an hour or two than politicians do in a lifetime: true or false? Discuss.

Sport is above politics. No matter how atrocious a nation's behaviour, it should be allowed to compete in international sporting events. Discuss.

Should cigarette advertising be allowed in sport?

Why do people take drugs in sport? What can be done to prevent drug abuse at major events?

Sprinters and distance runners are often very different types of people; can you describe the differences in physique, and possibly mentality and personality, between them?

Do gymnasts and other competitive sportsmen start their sport too young? What health penalties might they pay in later life, and what can be done to prevent them?

Why are so many people attracted to very high-risk sports, such as ski-jumping, rock-climbing, and bobsledding?

Although soccer seems to have spread all over the world, people still have national games. Choose a foreign country and describe its national game.
