

THE HUMAN BODY

Describe a person you admire / think is very good-looking.

Beauty is only skin-deep; discuss.

Describe someone you hate / find extremely ugly.

There are many “old wives tales” concerning bodily matters. Are they all nonsense?

Describe someone you hate / find extremely ugly.

How would you describe the typical Czech man and woman? Are Czechs a slim nation?

Find out how many of your classmates care about physical appearance and beauty. What is it that attracts most of them in the first place?

Write a paragraph describing the oldest member of your family and then read it out to the class.

Do you resemble your mother / father / a relative of yours? What are some of the features that you seem to share with them?

Describe your present hairstyle. Have you ever had your hair cut really short or shaved off? Of yes, how did you feel?

What would you change about your appearance if you could? What are your views on plastic surgery – do you think that it can work wonders?